

CONFIRMACION

SEGUNDO AÑO

SAN CARLOS CATHEDRAL

CLASES

Sesiones que enseñan las verdades de nuestra fe mientras les dan a los estudiantes la oportunidad de construir una comunidad

SERVICIO

Una oportunidad para que las familias sirvan juntas, dentro de la comunidad y un ministerio parroquial. *

PADRINO/MADRINA

Una persona que esté plenamente iniciada en la fe católica, así como mentor para guiarlos en su viaje de fe.

LA MISA

La "fuente y cumbre" de nuestra fe. Asistencia a misa semanal se espera de todos los estudiantes y familias.

RETIRO

Un día para enfocarnos en nuestra relación con Cristo
Se requiere asistir a Año 1 y Año 2. *

* DEBIDO A COVID-19, ALGUNOS ARTÍCULOS QUE SE REQUIEREN NORMALMENTE SE RENUNCIAN SOLO PARA ESTE AÑO

11TH - LETTER TO THE BISHOP

Writing YOUR "Letter to the Bishop"

1. Start off with "Dear Bishop _____"
2. Next write two indented paragraphs telling the Bishop:
  - a. Why do you want to be Confirmed (be honest...)
  - b. How have you grown in your faith life over the past two years?
    - i. What experiences affected you? Why?
    - ii. Do you pray more now?
    - iii. How do you see God in your life now?
    - iv. What service opportunities did you do? How did they affect you?
    - v. What were the retreats like? How did you experience the Holy Spirit?
    - vi. What have you learned?
3. Lastly, give realistic examples of how you plan to live out your Confirmation commitment after you have received the Sacrament.
4. At the end, thank him by writing something like: "Thank you for reading my letter" or "I'm looking forward to meeting you on the day of our Confirmation ceremony," or something similar.
5. End your letter with, "Sincerely," or "In Christ," or "Peace in Christ," or "Blessings," or something similar.
6. Type out your full name and sign below!

Thank you! You're awesome. He will love reading these... and, YES, he reads every single one! Good luck and just write from your heart!
